So he got right to it.

Without a thought he picked up his baseball bat, jumped five hundred feet into the air, and cleaved a reaper right through the skull. The creature howled, and then fell. Using its body for leverage, he jumped off of its head and to another one of the grim creatures, kicking one of its eyes out and breaking its death. That, too, was enough to kill it. His team watched on in silent fear as a lust for blood filled Tom. Was this the boy they once knew? From the back of his skull grew two long spikes.
